

Gender & Diversity in Educational Context - Workflow 2023

1. Gender & Diversity Course Introduction:
Check the introduction file in Moodle and choose at least one aspect of diversity you want to work on. It should fit to your dissertation topic.
2. Topics of Interest:
Please check the file "Gender & Diversity in Education - Topics of Interest" and maybe add further topics and/or questions that we try to clarify during this course. I will provide further information and literature for these topics in Moodle until Christmas.
3. Task 1: Brainstorming
Find some ideas for your diversity paper (final product of this course). Upload a title and research questions to Moodle. (the deadline has been changed to October 26 for our new students).
4. Task 2: Abstract & Feedback
Write an abstract for your diversity paper and upload it to Moodle by October 31. For feedback, every student will get 2 abstracts to review. The feedback must be uploaded by November 8.
5. Feedback session & mid-term presentation:
For a general feedback session in November and the mid-term presentation, I will send you a doodle as soon as possible.
6. Final presentation:
We will fix the date for the final presentation according to your needs. It should take place between January and March 2024.
7. Uploads:
(deadlines according to your needs:
